Community Invited to Celebrate Nevada City's 160th Birthday April 19th

Nevada City celebrates its 160th birthday next Tuesday, April 19th and is inviting the community to a birthday celebration at City Hall (317 Broad Street) from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. "This is a terrific opportunity to celebrate our rich history and say hello to your neighbors," Mayor Jennifer Ray said. "We hope people will visit and enjoy a look at City memorabilia from years past." Cake and refreshments will be provided.

Located in the foothills of northern California between Sacramento and Lake Tahoe, Nevada City was incorporated on April 19, 1856. Regarded as California's best preserved Gold Rush town, Nevada City today is home to beautiful historic buildings, fine restaurants, a thriving arts/music community, plentiful shopping and recreational opportunities, and industry-leading technology companies.
